

UÉVORA Summer School'21

Introduction to Academic Research Project

PROGRAMME

This Introduction Course is organized in nine units (three units per session), with the aim to introduce academic research as a complex project, made by to several aspects. Fundamental pedagogical techniques are foreseen for each module, namely transmissive work (exhibition of information in multimedia support), independent individual work (reading, analysis and treatment of information) and group work (discussion and analysis of texts).

Day 1 12th of july

- Research and the Research Problem
- Literature Review: information and how to deal with it
- Types of Research

Day 2 13th of july

- Argument
- Research Design
- Research Methods

Day 3 14th of july

- Research Ethics
- Research Proposal
- Academic Writing